

A Special Project of the New Jersey FFA Foundation

Application Information

ELIGIBILITY

- 1. Applicants must appear on the roster of an FFA chapter in good standing with the state association.
- 2. The Application must be submitted to State FFA Office by April 1st or date listed on current Calendar of Events.
- 3. There is no limit to the number of applicants from a chapter/school.
- 4. The scholarship will be sent directly to the student but made payable to the college/university/tech school/etc.
- 5. The scholarship will be forfeited if not used by December 31 during the year of application.
- 6. The student must be attending or planning to attend a postsecondary institution or university in order to apply.

DESCRIPTION

Scholarships are awarded to students who are or will be receiving postsecondary education in the coming year. Most scholarships awarded are for students pursuing an agricultural major. Students must be FFA members to be eligible for scholarships. All scholarships are sponsored through special funds of the New Jersey FFA Foundation.

Activities and Leadership

For this item, only list one office, committee chair held, and/or committee served on per available line. If you have served in the same office or committee over multiple years, mark the position on different lines (per term). Leadership Roles listed for multiple years on one line will only be counted once.

For the above items, only list one activity or event per available line. If you have participated in the same activity or event over multiple years or at multiple levels, mark them on separate lines. Activities or events listed as multiple years on one line will only be counted once. Submitting applications or forms is not considered a CDE/LDE or FFA Activity.

Essays

Each response requires at least 60 words. Responses are limited to a maximum of 180 words. NOTE: It is STRONGLY recommended that you type your responses in a separate document and then copy and paste it into the application. Responses that do not meet the minimum required word count will NOT be saved if you leave this page.
